Touch

The art world's ultimate taboo is banished in the acclaimed selling exhibition

Sense & Sensuality

Bankside Gallery

14th September - 8th October 2006

challenging Perceptions of artistic vision

Jenny Cordy - Chromosphere

Sense & Sensuality

- 2006 sees the return of the second annual exhibition Sense & Sensuality organised by the pioneering charity BlindArt.
- Sense & Sensuality presents an extravaganza of contemporary interactive art encompassing paintings, sculpture & installations.
- Sense & Sensuality breaks through traditional hierarchies & barriers in the arts by actively encouraging all works to be experienced through touch.
- Sense & Sensuality challenges the notion that sight is essential for creating and enjoying exceptional art.

Gina Afonso Rodenach - Blocks of Emotion

Carl Froth - Symbol L

Jeanne Brandon - Just Looking II

Peter Ciolek - Egyptian Princess

The Oak Workshop - Brighton Beach Ball

Natalia Leiva - Bonaccia

- Sense & Sensuality is an inclusive exhibition that provides large print, Braille, tactile images and audio-description information for visually impaired visitors. BSL and text transcripts are available for visitors with hearing impairment.

The exhibition design considers a broad range of physical access adjustments.

- All works are for sale with proceeds going to raise funds for BlindArt projects.
- BlindArt is the only commercially-based all-inclusive charity, which promotes artistic excellence regardless of visual-ability and encourages a re-evaluation of what constitutes visual art.

Jennifer Ramsey - Rite of Passage I

Kevin Hunt - Are you Selling Comfortably?

Francesa Awa Bone - Almaz

Ruth Schwabe - Childhood Revealed
